

FARLEIGH GOLF CLUB CAPTAINS' DAY RAISES £6,000 FOR SKIN DISEASE RESEARCH

Farleigh Golf Club's annual Captains' Charity Day took place on Saturday 10th June in support of the British Skin Foundation. Thirty-five fourballs tackled 18 holes in the sunshine, competing to win some of the fantastic prizes on offer.

Competitors had the chance to win a three night stay at the luxurious Hotel Jardin Tecina, Canary Islands; a Mercedes Benz, a weekend golf break for four at Forest of Arden Marriot Hotel; a holiday for two in Portugal; and a set of TaylorMade irons and putter – all they had to do was score a hole in one on the 4th & 7th Red and 3rd & 7th Blue holes!

Congratulations to winners

1st Gary & Dave Hollingdale, Nicky Wilcox & George Penny

2nd Ted Knight, Steve Downs & Colin Parker

3rd Ernie Owusu & guests

After their round of golf, players returned to the Clubhouse to enjoy hog roast with their families and friends. This was followed by a game of 'Beat the County Dart Player' with member Gar Trodd as well as a performance by World Champion Trick Shot Artist, Jeremy Dale, who wowed the crowds with switch-hitting tricks.

Captain Simon Oliver said 'It was a great turnout and a brilliant day. We're glad that the £6,000 raised will fund research into skin diseases including skin cancer via the British Skin Foundation. Thank you to all who made the day a success.'
